Dear Jaime:

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you and your fine team of professionals in earning the distinction of Top Selling Travel Agency in the United States for the entire product line of Trafalgar Tours.

This achievement is important for several reasons.

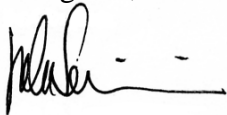

First, it clearly shows that the Trafalgar product line continues to be a key focal point in your business and the attention that your staff has extended reflects your commitment to promoting and selling fine, reputable products. By the way, Trafalgar has earned a 98% satisfaction rating from your customers... the highest in the industry.

Second, your support for our worldwide destinations and our different styles and programs continue to expose more and more potential travelers to the largest and most competitively priced vacations throughout the world.

Third, your commitment to professionalism, expertise, and product knowledge for your staff further illustrates your focus on offering the best experience for your clients when they contact your agency.

Jaime, again, congratulations on achieving Top Seller's status. We look forward to an incredibly strong relationship with your agency in the future!

Best Regards,

John G. Severini, CTC
President
